FREEDOM OF ARTISTIC EXPRESSION (“FAE”) POLICY

Rock 'n' Roll Camp for Girls

The Rock 'n' Roll Camp for Girls (“RNRC4G”) supports artistic expression through music, zines, art, and other forms of artistic expression in accordance with its Code of Conduct, mission, and goals. These can be found on our website www.girlsrockcamp.org and in return paperwork packets for accepted campers. RNRC4G does not censor lyrical and written content and artistic expression at Camp unless it is in violation of the Code of Conduct. Therefore, some lyrical and written content and/or art at Camp may contain issues, language, concepts, ideas, and/or images that may or may not be considered appropriate for all ages.

RNRC4G program participants have the opportunity and freedom to express themselves in a supportive environment. It is the policy of the RNRC4G to make reasonable efforts to ensure lyrics and writing are respectful, abide by its Code of Conduct, and are consistent with its mission and goals.

Campers and students of all ages participate in the creation of an original song with their instrument instruction class, and/or during band practice. Some campers, parents, or guardians may feel issues, language, concepts, ideas, and/or images arising during the process of creating a song, zine, performance, or other material is problematic in one or more ways or forms. RNRC4G treats each of these incidents on a case by case basis. RNRC4G staff and volunteers make reasonable attempts to ensure that each camper is free to express herself in accordance to with this FAE policy, and that content concerns are treated respectfully.

Campers and students of all ages have access to and may view or borrow music, zines, books, and/or magazines from RNRC4G’s lending library, some of which may contain issues, language, concepts, ideas, and/or images that may or may not be considered appropriate for all ages.

Campers and students of all ages are exposed to a wide variety of music during Camp, including but not limited to during assemblies, class, visiting band performances, workshops, and band practice consistent with this FAE policy.

Swag/gift bags for campers age 12 and under contain an assortment of musical recordings, posters, and may or may not contain other materials, including but not limited to flyers, pictures, pins, and/or stickers . These items have been reasonably screened for language and artistic and thematic content. The recordings and images screened out of the 12 and under bags are available if supplies last to parents and/or guardians who may distribute the materials to their camper if they wish.

The RNRC4G believes that the first step in increasing self-esteem is to allow free expression. Thank you for supporting our effort to encourage women and girls to be self-expressed!

By signing below, you acknowledge and agree with the RNRC4G’s FAE Policy and waive any and all claims arising out of this FAE Policy and the subject matter of this FAE Policy.
